Support Staff IV – Bookmobile and Outreach Department – Full Time

The Montgomery County-Norristown Public Library seeks a flexible and reliable fulltime employee to provide outstanding support in the Bookmobile and Outreach Department. Position is 37 hours per week and includes day, evening, and weekend shifts. Assistant to the Department Head. Supports the department supervisor by scheduling and overseeing the work of staff, addressing and reporting disciplinary challenges, preparing and submitting timesheets, responding to personnel, facility, and vehicle emergencies effectively, and other duties as required by Department Head. Also must be familiar with all department operations and be willing and able to substitute for all other support staff positions in the department as needed. Outstanding interpersonal skills are imperative. Benefits available.

Responsibilities

- Staff Supervision: Handle personnel issues and scheduling when Department Head is not available.
- Public Service Responsibilities: Act as head of circulation operations for the Books Go Round (BGR), Extension (EXT), and Words on Wheels (WOW) bookmobiles and the Books by Mail program: enforce policies and procedures, administer patron accounts and billing, reconcile cash boxes and checks, direct the processing and shelving of materials, track and resolve missing materials, address customer service feedback and material requests, collect and distribute statistics.
- Back Office Responsibilities:
 - Overdue processing (sending out notices, checking shelves, clearing records, and following up on notices).
 - Handle patron concerns such as missing items, replacement costs, fines, claims returns, and service issues.
 - Check Interlibrary Loan reserves.
 - Oversee the sorting and distribution of materials for the Pony Express delivery service.
 - Assist with the fleet management of the bookmobiles and delivery vans; ensure weekly execution of vehicle preventative maintenance procedures, schedule vehicle inspections and service appointments, maintain vehicle keys, registrations, insurance and owner's cards, reconcile fuel bills, process invoices, and direct the internal/external cleaning of vehicles.
 - Maintain, update, and publish department service schedules for patrons in print and online.
 - Assist Department Head with design and delivery of outreach programming to department service populations.
 - Assist Department Head in marketing department services in print, online, and in person. Distributes newsletters to municipalities. Participate in MC-NPL social media. Take a lead role during bookmobile appearances at municipal community days and other promotional events.

Organizational Relationships

- Maintain positive working relationships with other MC-NPL departments and branches.
- Represent department to external agencies including, but not limited to: service providers, schools, non-profits, residential facilities, district libraries, local municipalities, and County government.
